

Agreement of Confidentiality

The Office of Learning Support is charged with the handling of all documentation and information regarding student disability services at Ashoka University. All documentation provided to the Office is confidential and will only be shared with written permission of the student. Consent of the student will be requested prior to releasing any educational assessment documentation to a third party. All documentation is maintained in both paper and electronic copies during a student's time of study at Ashoka University.

Accommodations extended to the students do not reflect in their academic records. In order to assess the need for Academic Accommodations, the OLS staff may conduct a brief assessment with the student to understand how the student's learning condition impacts his/her ability to study. The accommodations granted may be shared with the student's parent (s), University faculty and staff, as well as qualified professionals and/or medical providers.

Disclosing information and seeking help from the Office of Learning Support implies that the student agrees to the above-mentioned agreement, protocols and procedures regarding the confidentiality.
