About Chief Minister's Good Governance Associates (CMGGA):

Ashoka University is the strategic partner in this impeccable programme and has engaged to identify passionate young professionals to work with the District Administrations in Haryana.

The CMGGA Programme is a first-of-its-kind experiential learning model in India, helping young professionals understand governance and government structures at the highest level in the state.

Each year, a dynamic cohort of 25 associates works with district administration while representing the Chief Minister's Office to drive mass impact on the ground. The cohorts work on innovating new mechanisms and concepts to transform governance and services reaching the last mile citizen in the state. Over the years, it has emerged from a mere concept to a successful Good Governance programme in Haryana. Ashoka University as the strategic partner was engaged to identify passionate young professionals to work with the District Administrations for on-ground data and direct feedback from citizens, bring out-of-the-box innovations to major issues and support the Deputy Commissioners (DCs) in different mechanisms.
