Student Handbook 2024

Preface

Welcome to Ashoka University! The Student Handbook summarises the educational programme structure at Ashoka University as well as rules, regulations and policies that every student at Ashoka University is expected to adhere to. This is an easy guide to all necessary and important information that a student may need throughout their stay at Ashoka University. It is mandated and expected of every student to read this handbook carefully and abide by it completely. This is a summary document meant to be a ready reference. Complete policy documents will be available to students through the myAshoka Portal. We wish you rich and rewarding years at Ashoka University!

A Decade of TRANSFORMATIVE EDUCATION

In 2007, Ashoka's founders embarked on their mission of creating a world-class liberal education university in India - a powerful idea whose time they believed had come. Today, with over 200 founders and donors, Ashoka has created a new collective philanthropy model of institution-building. The University has pioneered interdisciplinary education and research in India, blending the finest global governance practices with a distinctive pedagogy and international faculty. As Ashoka completes its first 10 years, it offers a transformative learning experience to nearly 3,000 students including 4% international scholars, 57% women and over 50 specially abled students. Nearly 5,000 Ashoka alumni are either pursuing higher education in top universities across the world, working in reputed organisations or building their own entrepreneurial ventures. Almost half of all students at Ashoka receive need-based aid. Since its inception, over 4,500 Ashoka students have received INR 510 crores in financial aid. 1800 of these have had a tuition-free education.

Ashoka's faculty comprises distinguished academicians, authors, scientists, historians, journalists, artists, and entrepreneurs who have contributed to high-quality research in their respective fields with over 800 publications, books and articles in prestigious journals. In a short span of time, Ashoka has been able to develop partnerships with over 50 leading colleges and universities across the world. Prestigious scholarships and fellowships received by Ashoka students include Fulbright Scholarship, Rhodes Scholarship, Inlaks Scholarship, Charles Wallace Fellowship, Felix Scholarship, Knight-Hennessy Scholarship, Schwarzman Scholarship, Quad Fellowship and McCall McBain Scholarship. Ashoka achieved the 88th rank (university category) in NIRF 2022, being the youngest university in the NIRF Top 100. In addition to building a rigorous academic programme, Ashoka addresses disciplines relevant to contemporary India through its Centres of Excellence which conduct interdisciplinary research on pressing social and economic issues and vital areas including biosciences and data sciences, thereby creating a larger institutional impact. Ashoka University will continue with its march towards building an inclusive institution of excellence in teaching and research and nurture responsible leaders for India and the world, while being a pioneering force for interdisciplinary higher education. We are proud to contribute to nation-building through our efforts. This is where tomorrow's leaders are born.

Bikram Phookun

Dear new Ashokans,

Welcome to the University!

The four years that await you at Ashoka will be full of new experiences of all kinds. As human beings you will try to understand — or, to use a new word, "process" — these experiences. Willy nilly we process everything we go through.

One of the ways we do this is through metaphors. One that I used long ago, in a piece for the annual yearbook at St Stephen's College, came back to me when I began writing this address. I was wishing my students farewell, and through the metaphor I reflected on the undergraduate experience they had had. Let me use it now to speak of what lies ahead of you.

"Until you arrived at College your lives floated evenly down a current determined by the lay of the land and the banks constraining it. Suddenly the river ends and you find yourselves in an estuary. You still feel the tug of the flow that until recently sufficed to keep you moving. But now there are winds and tides to reckon with. Neighbours who speak in foreign tongues jostle you. You find friends and form flotillas. You learn how to hoist your sail, how to navigate, how to drop anchor. Slowly you earn your sea-legs. In the harbour are some grizzled sailors who bark advice at you. But you pay them little heed. You listen more keenly to the tales of voyagers from distant lands who speak of the fabulous Indies, of the Roaring Forties that you may have to brave, of the icebergs that may sink the best of you. You can feel the daily pull of the tides, and the salt smell of the sea is inescapable."

Before you go out into the sea, you must make the best of what this estuary offers. You have been told a lot about its possibilities. But there is one that you can easily miss — the possibility of making errors and of learning from them. What is special about an estuary is that the mistakes you make here don't have the consequences of the open sea, and so you can learn from them without fear.

On the subject of learning from errors I can't do better than to quote the great mathematician Alexandre Grothendieck: "The discovery of error is one of the crucial moments, a moment uniquely creative, in every work of discovery, .... To fear error and to fear the truth are one and the same thing. He who is afraid of fooling himself is powerless to discover. It is when we fear fooling ourselves that the error that is in us becomes immovable as a rock. For, in our fear, we attach ourselves to that which we have one day decided is "true", or that which was always presented to us as such. When we are moved not by the fear of seeing an illusory security collapse but by a thirst to know, then error, like suffering and sadness, goes through us without ever hardening, and the trace of its passage is a renewed knowing."

I hope Ashoka University will prove to be a space where you learn not just from what you do right but also from what you do wrong. May the trace of your passage through it be a renewed knowing — of the many disciplines you encounter, of yourself, of others, and of the world at large.

Good luck!

Shalini Mehrotra

Your adventure of limitless possibilities kicks off with the Orientation Week right after your arrival, introducing you to the myriad of opportunities that await at Ashoka. We encourage you to take full advantage of these activities and make the most of this week.

Do not hesitate or feel uncertain when facing challenges, taking that first step, asking a question or expressing your opinion. Diverse viewpoints will help improve the learning environment and shared knowledge will only expand our horizon of understanding. Because, in these moments of uncertainty, we achieve something unprecedented or emerge as a better version of ourselves. So, let's set lofty goals, push ourselves and make this year and years to come, a phase of exceptional achievements. And create and carve happy memories too!

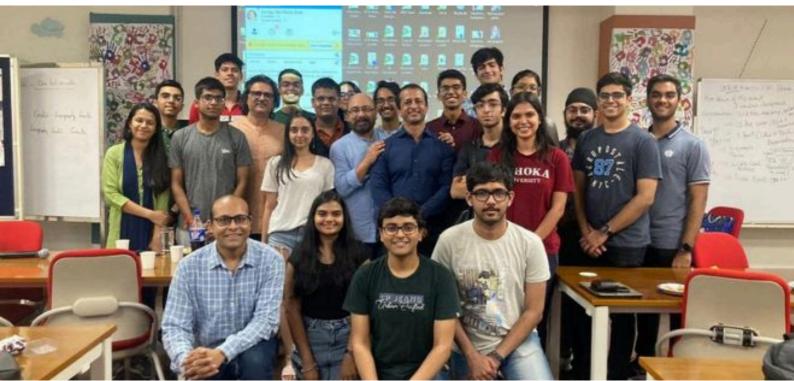

With great hope and immense possibilities ahead, I eagerly look forward to welcoming you to Ashoka for a great collaboration and an enriching experience.

Let me conclude with what Kurt Hahn said: There is more in you than you think. Welcome aboard to unleash what is within you left unexplored.

ACADEMIC INFORMATION

Course Structure

Ashoka follows a credit-based system (Table 1). Most academic courses are worth 4 credits each, though there exist 2-credit courses as well. Co-Curricular courses are usually of 2 credits, and Internships can be of 2 or 4 credits. To graduate with a Bachelor's degree from Ashoka University, a student must:

• Complete the requirements of a Major:

- For Four Degree Programme: A minimum of 72 credits for Type A or 80 credits for Type B
- For Three Degree Programme: A minimum of 52 credits for Type A or 60 credits for Type B
- Complete 9 Foundation Courses (36 credits), which include the Introduction to Critical Thinking course,
- Complete 2 Co-Curricular Courses (2 credits each),
- Earn 2-4 credits through Internships,
- Complete the English Communication Course(s), if assigned,
- Complete overall credit requirements of 120 or 160 as per the degree chosen
- Have a Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA)  $\geq 1.67$  out of 4.00

The general degree requirements to complete a B.A./B.Sc Honors in 4 years, a B.A./ B.Sc Honors with Research in 4 years, or a B.A./B.Sc. Honors in 3 years, are as follows:

Table 1: Minimum Credit Requirements

S. No.	Type of Courses	Three-year B.A./B.Sc. (Hons.)		Four-year B.A./B.Sc. (Hons.)		Four-year B.A./B.Sc. (Hons. with Research)
		Type A	Туре В	Type A	Туре В	Type A	Туре В
1	Foundation Courses	36	36	36	36	36	36
2	Co-Curricular Courses	4	4	4	4	4	4
3	Internship	2	2	2	2	2	2
4	Major Courses (Minimum Credits)	52	60	72	80	72	80

6	Other Courses	26	18	46	38	34	26
	Total Credits	120	120	160	160	160	160

Workload per semester

Students are normally required to register for a minimum of 16 credits per semester. In the graduating semester, a student may go below the 16-credit requirement (but not below 12 credits) which means a student needs less credits to graduate. This is not automatically adjusted at registration. The student has to raise a request to the Office of Academic Affairs, through AMS for permission to register below minimum credits.

Note, however, that going below minimum credits makes the student ineligible for the Dean's List in that semester.

Credits in Ashoka can be earned in a variety of ways: from Foundation Courses, Major/Minor courses, Independent Study Modules (ISMs), Co-Curricular Courses (CCs), Teaching Practicums, Internships, and Research. Research credits are compulsory for students who have opted for a 4-year Hons. degree programme with research.

In the first semester, students take a maximum of 18 credits; out of which 16 credits can come from: Foundation Courses (FCs), including the Introduction to Critical Thinking course (if assigned) [4 credits each], the English Communication Course (if required) [4 credits], or the Calculus Enabler (if opted for) [4 credits]. The remaining 2 credits can come from a Co-Curricular course (CC).

From the second semester to fourth semester, students take a maximum of 24 credits; out of which 22 credits can come from: FCs [4 credits each], regular Major/Minor courses [typically 4 credits each], Independent Study Modules (ISMs) [2 or 4 credits each]. By default, students cannot take ISMs for more than 8 credits during their UG degree. The remaining 2 credits may be earned from Co-Curricular courses (CC) [2 credits each], or Internships [2 credits each].

In either the fifth or sixth semester, students can take a maximum of 26 credits from: FCs [4 credits each], regular Major/Minor courses [typically 4 credits each], Teaching Practicums/Assistantships [typically 2 or 4 credits], Independent Study Modules (ISMs) [2 or 4 credits each], Co-Curricular courses (CC) [2 credits each], or Internships [2 credits each].

In either the seventh or eighth semester, students can take a maximum of 26 credits from: FCs [4 credits each], regular Major/Minor courses [typically 4 credits each], Teaching Practicums/Assistantships [typically 2 or 4 credits], Independent Study Modules (ISMs) [2 or 4 credits each], Co-Curricular courses (CC) [2 credits each], or Internships [2 credits each].

An additional 12 credits can also be taken in the summer semester, of which 8 credits from: FCs [4 credits each], regular Major/Minor courses [typically 4 credits each], Teaching Practicums/Assistantships [typically 2 or 4 credits], Independent Study Modules (ISMs) [2 or 4 credits each] and 4 credits from the internship.

Credentials

As an undergraduate student, you can earn additional credentials apart from your Major.

• To earn a Minor in any given subject, you must take at least 24 credits in any one of Ashoka's approved programmes outside your Major. Most of the programmes have specific requirements as to which courses may be taken to receive a Minor.

• To earn a Concentration in any given subject, you must take at least 16 credits in any one of Ashoka's approved programmes outside your Major. Again, many programmes have specific requirements as to which courses may be taken to receive a Concentration.

The 9 Foundation Courses (FCs)

FCs are a signature element of an Ashoka education and every Ashoka undergraduate student must take all the 9 FCs listed. FCs introduce students to diverse styles of thinking and are frequently taught in an inter- and trans-disciplinary manner. As stated above, in the first semester, typically, four FCs will be pre-allocated, one of which may be the Introduction to Critical Thinking course.

Students may also select the Calculus Enabler course or be required to take the English Communication Course (see below). In general, students are advised to take the rest of their FCs early on, so as to be exposed to multiple styles of thinking while still in the process of deciding what Major they want to pursue. That said, the timeline for the completion of all the FCs will also depend on the specific semester-wise requirements of each student's chosen Major.

Introduction to Critical Thinking (ICT)

Ashoka University requires all UG students to take an Introduction to Critical Thinking (ICT) course. This core course is part of the Foundation Course series and will be assigned either in the first or the second semester. Capped at a smaller number than other Foundation Courses, it is designed to help students develop their critical skills in reading, writing, analysis, and interpretation within the parameters of a specific subject. Like all Foundation Courses, the ICT does not count towards any Major requirement.

Calculus Enabler Course

The Calculus Course is mandatory for all students considering a Major/Minor/Concentration in Mathematics, Mathematics and Computer Science, Computer Science, Computer Science and Entrepreneurship, Philosophy and Computer Science.

The course is also mandatory for students who have not studied Mathematics in Class XI and Class XII and are considering majoring in Economics, Economics and Finance, Economics and History, Economics and Public Policy, or any other math- intensive programme.

Students who have not studied Mathematics in Class XI and Class XII and students who studied a type of Mathematics in Class XI and Class XII that is not accepted at Ashoka*, will be required to take the Calculus Eligibility Test to be further eligible to take the Calculus Course.

*Please click here to read Ashoka University's policies on Mathematics courses offered by various educational boards. (Note that the Calculus Course is not a Foundation Course and thus does not count towards the Foundation Course requirement).

English Communication Course

English Communication is a course offered by the Centre for Writing and Communication (CWC) to 1st-year students in the Monsoon semester. A student cannot opt for this course; it is assigned to them on the basis of need and after suitable evaluation through the Admissions team and the CWC. The course focuses on English language learning and is designed to enhance English language abilities and to prepare students for academic rigour in other courses.

The Intermediate English Communication Course offered in the Spring semester builds on the topics covered in the Monsoon semester and serves to further develop advanced English language skills and to improve academic writing skills. This course is open only to those students to whom it has either been assigned or for whom it has been explicitly recommended, on the basis of need and after suitable evaluation through the Admissions team and the CWC. Taking this course counts toward the Foundation Course (FC) requirements and thus entitles the student to drop an FC of their choice - with following exceptions: the neither Environmental Studies nor Introduction to Critical Thinking can be dropped.

Majors

The Major is the subject in which a student will earn a Bachelor's degree – either a Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) or a Bachelor of Science (B.Sc.). Students will be required to formally declare their Majors by the end of the third semester. However, it will be in students' best interests to start taking courses in potential Major subjects before declaring a Major. Students can begin to take Major courses in the second semester. As noted above, each student must complete at least 13 courses in a given subject (and in some programmes, more) to complete a Major in that subject. As stated above, the specifics are programme-dependent; details may be found on the websites of the relevant programmes and obtained from the respective departments.

Ashoka University offers Pure Majors in the following subjects:

Biology (B.Sc. Hons.)	Mathematics (B.Sc. Hons.)
Chemistry (B.Sc. Hons.)	Philosophy (B.A. Hons.)
Computer Science (B.Sc. Hons.)	Physics (B.Sc. Hons.)
Economics (B.A. Hons.)	Political Science (B.A. Hons.)
English (B.A. Hons.)	Psychology (B.Sc. Hons.)
History (B.A. Hons.)	Sociology/Anthropology (B.A. Hons.)
International Relations (B.A. Hons.)

Ashoka University also offers Interdisciplinary Majors in the following subjects:

Computer Science and Entrepreneurial Leadership (B.Sc. Hons.)	English and Media Studies (B.A. Hons.)
Economics and Finance(B.Sc. Hons.)	English and Performing Arts (B.A. Hons.)
Economics and History(B.A. Hons.)	History and International Relations(B.A. Hons.)
English and Creative Writing (B.A. Hons.)	Mathematics and Computer Science(B.Sc. Hons.)
Psychology and Philosophy (B.A. Hons.)	Philosophy and Computer Science (B.A.Hons.)
Politics, Philosophy and Economics (B.A. Hons.)	Economics and Public Policy (B.A. Hons.)

Minors

Students are encouraged to consider declaring a Minor in addition to their Major. Completing 24 credits in a subject outside the Major field of specialization qualifies for a Minor in that subject (note, however, that many programmes set up specific requirements with regards to which courses must be taken - please consult their websites for details). Note that credit requirements may increase for some programmes. Ashoka offers Minors in all Major subjects and it also offers Minors in the following areas:

Creative Writing	Media Studies
Entrepreneurial Leadership and Strategy	Performing Arts
Environmental Studies	Sanskrit Studies
International Relations	Visual Arts
Astronomy	China Studies

Co-Curricular Courses

Every semester, Ashoka University offers several 2-credit Co-Curricular courses in Performing Arts, Visual Arts, and Languages. These normally meet in the evenings, once a week, for two hours. Co-curricular courses are a mixture of practical training in an art form (fine arts and performing arts) or language (subcontinental and global) and critical analyses of that form's or language's aesthetic, social, political, economic, and historical dimensions.

Every student has to take 2 Co-curricular Courses as part of their graduation requirements; in any semester, a maximum of 1 Co-Curricular course may be taken. Note that a student can take more than 2 Co-Curricular Courses, but that only 2 of them (i.e., a total of 4 credits) count towards the total credit requirement. Co-Curricular Courses offered by Ashoka to date have engaged with painting, sculpture, photography, film, theatre, music, dance, and languages - both ancient and modern.

Independent Study Modules (ISMs)

In many (though not all) departments, students may apply for an ISM with an instructor. An ISM allows one or more students to spend one full semester working with an instructor on a topic not otherwise offered in the department. ISMs typically yield 2 or 4 credits and must be defined in terms of clear requirements agreed upon by the student(s) and the instructor. Whether or not an ISM in a given area is made available to a student depends entirely on whether a suitable instructor is available, able, and willing to take on this extra commitment. If and how ISMs count towards the various credentials in a given subject is decided by individual departments. The default maximum number of credits from ISMs that can count toward a student's undergraduate degree is 8 credits.

Forms of Instruction

Ashoka University's 4-credit courses – Foundation Courses, Major, Minor, and elective courses – all involve a blended model of instruction. In the 4 weekly hours of classroom meetings for Foundation Courses, 3 hours are spent in Lecture Sessions (usually 2 meetings, 1½ hours each), 1 hour is spent in Discussion Sessions; in Major, Minor, and elective Courses, 3 hours are spent in Lecture Sessions and 1 hour in office hours or Discussion Sessions.

Lecture Sessions are taught by at least one faculty member. The Discussion Session is a tutorial led by a Teaching Fellow. Co-Curricular courses are typically a mixture of practical training and critical analysis through lecture and discussion. These classes meet once a week, for two hours at a time, are led by Co-Curricular faculty members, and do not have Teaching Fellows.

Lecture Sessions

Lecture Sessions are course meetings of 11/2hours' duration, led by at least one faculty member. During the 13 weeks in which classes are in session for the semester, students attend 3 hours of Lecture Sessions a week for each course they are taking. Lecture Sessions do not consist just of lectures; they usually involve substantial student participation, too. Ashoka University professors, for the most part, use what is known as the Socratic Method – asking students questions about the topic of the day and the set readings, and allowing the class to proceed through student participation. It is crucial, therefore, that students do all the reading assigned for each day's classes, as outlined in the course syllabi. This will require careful preparation and skills of time management in the days before each Lecture Session.

Discussion Sessions

Discussion Sessions are course meetings of one hour's duration each, led by Teaching Fellows. Students must attend one Discussion Session per week for each Foundation Course that they are taking and one Discussion Session per week for each other course they are taking that has Discussion Sessions assigned. Discussion Sessions are much smaller in size than Lecture Sessions. The objective of Discussion Sessions is to ensure that students have ample opportunity to talk about the ideas of the course in a peer learning-oriented environment.

The Teaching Fellow may answer questions about the course materials, but they are there less to lecture than to facilitate dialogue and debate. Discussion Sessions may also require students to do extra readings as well as to complete in-class writing assignments that will serve as the basis of discussion.

Office Hours

In addition to the three hours of classroom time each week, dedicated office hours will also be offered by the faculty (and, where applicable, Teaching Fellows) for all courses. The emphasis will be on addressing students' questions; meetings will usually be conducted during the faculty members' posted office hours.

Teaching Fellows and Teaching Assistants

Each Ashoka University undergraduate Foundation Course is taught by a professor aided by one or more Teaching Fellows (TFs). An Ashoka University TF has a number of responsibilities in a Foundation Course:

- Whereas the course professor presides over the larger scheduled lecture sessions, the TF leads that course's weekly one-hour discussion session. The TF holds regular weekly office hours to meet with students and talk with them about their written and classroom work.
- The TF attends all the lecture classes as well.
- TFs often help the faculty with courserelated grading.

In many cases, major, minor and elective courses may also be assisted by TFs. Typically, these TFs' responsibilities are similar to those of Foundation Course TFs. However, in other cases, the model of engagement may vary depending on the needs of the subject.

Some courses also have Teaching Assistants (TAs). A Teaching Assistant is typically a student in their 3rd or 4th UG year, (a rising 3rd year at the earliest), and typically earns 2 credits for their Teaching Assistantship. TAs have fewer responsibilities than TFs and are not required to teach Discussion Sessions; they typically support the instructor with activities such as the distribution of materials, the grading of quizzes (with answer keys), taking attendance or class communication. Like TFs, TAs may be expected to attend all the classes.

Choosing Subjects

Choosing a Major

Students will formally declare their Major only at the end of the third semester – i.e., half-way through the second year, around the time of registration for fourth-semester courses. Even before the declaration of the Major, each student will typically take courses towards what will become their Major subject.

Choosing a Minor or a Concentration

At the end of the third semester, students may also declare a Minor or a Concentration (or two, or both, depending on what they can fit in). Even before the declaration of the Minor or Concentration, students may take courses towards what will become their Minor or Concentration subject.

Mentoring and Advising

Academic mentoring and advising is designed to help students arrive at Ashoka, find their bearings in a new academic environment, help them make informed decisions about their course of studies, about Major and Minor explorations, and assist with maneuvering academic policies and procedures. Academic mentors and advisors may also assist students in identifying additional support services that can help them achieve academic success. Here is a selection of issues that students can receive help with:

- · course selection
- · academic planning
- changing Major, Minor, interdisciplinary and study options
- · withdrawal from a course
- course audits

- · liaising with a faculty member
- referral to various student service units such as the Office of Learning Support or the Ashoka Centre for Well Being.

Faculty Mentors

Upon joining Ashoka, a faculty member will be assigned to each student as their Faculty Mentor. The Faculty Mentor may be from any discipline and will serve as the first academic point of contact for the student. The Faculty Mentor may meet with individual students, or with groups of students at a time, to discuss matters relating to their general experience at Ashoka. Note that each student has to meet with their Faculty Mentor before the end of the add/drop period in each of their first three semesters. A student can request a change of Faculty Mentor at any time by reaching out to the Office of Academic Affairs; such requests will always be granted.

Academic Advisors

Once a student has formally declared their Major, their formal relationship with their Faculty Mentor ends and they will be assigned a Major Advisor. The Major Advisor is a faculty member from the student's Major subject and they will take over the duties of the Faculty Mentor. Given their academic expertise, the Major Advisor will also be able to provide the student with more specific advice on the student's course of study in their Major subject.

Meeting with Advisors and Mentors

Faculty Mentors and Academic Advisors are available to speak with students during their office hours about how best to prepare for, and navigate, the students' preferred programmes. They will ideally meet with their mentees and advisees at least once a semester, before the end of the add/drop period, to discuss possible course selections for the following semesters.

Advisors will reach out to students to schedule meetings. Still, we strongly recommend that students be proactive and make appointments with their Advisors and Mentors in advance. should come Students to advising appointments appropriately prepared. They may bring, for example, a list of possible course selections. Students should not expect their Advisor to select their courses for you: their role is to offer advice, not to micromanage students' choices. In general, advising is a joint activity that, to be successful, requires collaboration on both sides.

Course Adjustment

Students may add or drop, or withdraw, from a course in any semester, subject to certain deadlines and conditions or permission.

Note that a student can only withdraw from a course if, by doing so, they do not drop below the minimum credit requirement per semester. Exceptions to this may only be requested from the second semester onwards and require approval from the Office of Academic Affairs. Note that the timeline during the summer semesters varies from the one given here and is communicated separately.

Assignments, Examinations, and Grades

Assignments

There are many forms of assessed assignments at Ashoka University. These include (but are not limited to)

- essays
- projects
- in-class writings
- online discussion
- forum contributions
- oral presentations
- · quizzes

Because most courses use continuous assessment, missed assignments will adversely affect students' final grades. Please note also that in-class participation usually counts for a significant portion of the final grade; not contributing to class discussions and/or missing classes will also have a negative impact on the final grade for the course.

Examinations and Grading System

Some (but not all) courses will have final examinations scheduled for examination week. The examination and its form are decided at the discretion of the professor.

Grading System

For every course, you will receive a final letter grade. These grades are calibrated with GPA quality points. The grid below shows how letter grades and GPA Quality Points relate:

Letter Grade	GPA Quality Points	Letter Grade	GPA Quality Points
А	4.0	С	2.0
A-	3.7	C-	1.7
B+	3.3	D+	1.3
В	3.0	D	1.0
B-	2.7	D-	0.7
C+	2.3	F	0

Auditing courses

Students in their first semester cannot audit courses. In the summer, no course can be audited. Starting in the second semester, students may audit up to two courses per semester over and above the maximum number of credits that they are otherwise allowed (see Maximum Credit Policy). Auditing a course does not yield credits; however, the audited course will show on the student's transcript and require that the student submit work as determined by the faculty member. If a student wishes to audit a given course, they must submit an audit request to the faculty through the AMS Portal. Note that faculty members typically limit the number of auditing students that they allow in their classroom and that granting audit requests is at the discretion of individual faculty members only. Students withdraw, without consequence, from a course that they audit by the end of Week 4. Those who drop an audit after Week 4 will get a WAU notation on their transcript. Lateral entry students may take audit courses in the first semester. An audit status on a course cannot normally be changed to a credit status.

Credit-to-Audit conversion

If in the course of the semester, a student realises that they have taken on too much, wish to drop a course for credit, but still want to be part of the course and engage with it, they can request to convert their status from 'enrolled for credit' to 'enrolled for audit'. The deadline to convert credit to audit is the end of week 8 of the semester. A student cannot convert their status in a course to auditing status past that deadline and they cannot convert any course from credit to audit if, by doing so, they will fall below the minimum credit requirements.

Pass/Fail Policy

- 1.The P/F option will be available only for internships. Internships done outside Ashoka University, without the supervision of an Ashoka faculty member, will by default be grade P/F. (See internship section below.)
- 2.P/F credits (upto 4) can count towards fulfilling the total credits required to graduate but not towards fulfilling the requirements for a major/minor/concentration.

Internships

- Internship credits can be graded in two different ways:
  - those done with the supervision of an Ashoka faculty member will earn letter grades, and such credits can, if the relevant department(s) so decides, contribute towards fulfilling the requirements for major/minor/ concentration; and

- those done without the supervision of an Ashoka faculty member will earn P/F grades.
- An internship on a P/F grading scheme that earns an F cannot be counted towards fulfilling any requirements, and will not show on the transcript.
- If the total number of internship credits earned exceeds the requirements for a degree, then the necessary credits will be counted in the following order of priority:

   (i) credits that earn letter grades, and (ii)
   P/F credits. If the number of internship credits with letter grades exceeds the total number required, then only those with the best grades and up to 4 credits will show on the transcript.
- Internship credits that are counted will be shown along with other course credits on the transcript. Internship credits that are not counted will be shown on a separate certificate issued by the OAA.

Dean's List

In every regular semester, undergraduate students who have completed at least 16 undergraduate academic credits in a given semester, who have not taken a Pass/Fail option in that semester, and whose GPA in that semester is ≥ 3.65 make the Dean's List in that semester. The semesters in which a student makes the Dean's List will be marked on the transcript and students who make the Dean's List by the end of the regular semester will be notified about this by the Dean of Academic Affairs.

Latin Honours

Based on the CGPA calculated for your courses taken at Ashoka during your undergraduate studies, you may be awarded one of the following Honours upon graduation:

- CUM LAUDE (CGPA  $\geq$  3.60)
- MAGNA CUM LAUDE (CGPA  $\geq 3.75$ )
- SUMMA CUM LAUDE (CGPA ≥ 3.90)

Incomplete Grade Policy

I. Default expectations

- 1. Ashoka University expects its students to register for courses after carefully going through their requirements, and complete all these requirements within the stipulated duration of the degree programme chosen.
- 2.It is assumed that students, in consultation with their faculty mentors or academic advisors, will undertake responsibilities commensurate with their abilities and commitments.

II. Purpose of the Incomplete Grade

- 1.Students should neither request nor receive an Incomplete (I) grade for a course simply because of failure to complete required assignments on time.
- 2. An I grade can be granted by an instructor to a student only if they have been working throughout the semester and near the end face sudden illness or injury, family crisis, or some other substantiated unforeseen circumstance beyond their control, that would make it impossible for them to complete all course requirements by the deadline announced by the instructor for submission of work. (A student who is not deemed eligible for an Incomplete may request OAA for a WF and repeat the course at a later time.)

III. Application for and Duration of an Incomplete Grade Status

- Students who believe that they can demonstrate a legitimate need for an Incomplete should request their instructor:
  - a. to grant them an Incomplete;
  - b.to clearly specify in writing, the terms of the Incomplete, in particular the deadline for submission of the pending work.

- The deadline for completing the process specified above is the last teaching day of the semester, as specified in the Academic Calendar.
- Whether an Incomplete should be granted and, if so, how much extra time the student will be given to complete the pending work is determined solely by the instructor, in light of their assessment of the circumstances and considerations of fairness.
- Unless the instructor stipulates, for special reasons, a shorter time period for completion of the work, the terms of the Incomplete must be satisfied within eight weeks of the end of the regular semester in which an I was granted. In exceptional cases (e.g., lengthy illnesses) instructor (not the student) may extend the deadline, but they must inform the OAA about the period of the Incomplete. This, however, is subject to the condition that under no circumstances can the extension given for completion and submission of the remaining work extend beyond the last day of the regular semester following the one in which the I grade was granted.

IV. Implementation of the Incomplete Grade and the Grade Update

- 1.To implement the Incomplete for the student, faculty assign an I grade instead of a regular grade when, at the end of the semester, they assign grades to their students on AMS.
- 2. Incompletes from a previous semester will automatically convert to an F grade at the end of Week 8, counting from the end of that semester in which Incomplete was granted, unless a request for an extension has been approved by the faculty and implemented by the OAA.

V. Incompletes, Prerequisites, and Graduation

- As long as an I grade remains on their record for a specific course, a student may not be registered for credit in any course that has that specific course as a stated prerequisite, unless they have requested and received a waiver from the faculty.
- A student cannot graduate while an I grade remains on their record, with the following exception: a student who otherwise meets all graduation requirements, but continues to have an I grade, will be marked as graduated and the course with the I grade will be assigned a W grade.

Course Repeat Policy

- 1.A student may repeat a course in which they receive the grade F/W/WF/WX.
- 2.A student may also repeat a course in which they receive a C grade or below. However, in this case, they may repeat the course only once, and the grade on the second attempt will be counted. However, this option can be exercised only three times during the UG programme, of which no more than two repeats will be granted in the first three years.
- 3.A student cannot repeat a course on which they have an unresolved Incomplete grade.
- 4. Students who have completed enough credits to graduate within the normal duration of the programme cannot defer graduation to repeat a course.

Attendance Policy

Promptness and regular class attendance are expected of all students and the University expects each student to take full responsibility for their academic work and academic progress. Students can take up to three absences from a class without providing any documentation.

If students exceed these three absences, the attendance policy of the respective instructor comes into force. Attendance policies will vary across departments and instructors. Some may not take attendance, others may require it and impose sanctions, including failure in the course, if a certain number of absences is exceeded. Students are thus advised to make sure they understand the various attendance requirements governing their various courses.

In case of exceptional circumstances having to do with family crises or mental-health concerns, students are advised to reach out to the Ashoka Center for Well-Being and place a request to the Office of Academic Affairs, who will assist them and try to mediate in their communications with faculty where required.

Students who represent Ashoka in any capacity (e.g. as athletes or artists in competition or for extra-curricular and interuniversity events on and off- campus) must route their request for absences through the appropriate channels. Athletes write to sports@ashoka.edu.in; other students. groups, clubs, and societies send an email to the Office of Student Life, giving the details of the event with the date, the name of the professor, and course details. Such requests must be submitted way ahead of the event, ideally about 2 weeks earlier. While they are students encouraged support to represent Ashoka (up to a maximum of 4 absences) by excusing them, the final decision regarding the handling of such absences lies with the individual faculty members. Students are, in turn, advised to use their three excused absences for such events, wherever possible.

Leave of Absence Policy

Exceptional circumstances, such as health- or family-related difficulties may arise in which a student takes their best option, that of taking a leave of absence (LOA). The following regulations specify the procedure governing such requests followed by the Office of Academic Affairs (OAA).

- 1. Exceptions from this policy must be approved by the OAA. An LOA must always be requested and can only be granted for one full semester only.
  - a. If the request for an LOA is received within eight weeks from the start of the semester and if the request is subsequently granted, the OAA will update the student's semester status to LOA, remove the student from all the courses they are enrolled in and inform the student's professors. As a result, the semester will disappear from the student's transcript.
  - b. If the request for an LOA is received after eight weeks from the start of the semester and if the request is subsequently granted, the semester will not be removed from the student's transcript. The OAA will withdraw the student from all courses with a WX grade and inform their professors about the LOA.
  - c. If, before the point in time a request for an LOA is approved (or after, such as in case a decision on an alleged Academic Integrity Violation is pending,) a final grade has been given to the student for a course in the semester for which the LOA is requested, then even if the LOA is granted, that final grade will stay on the transcript.
  - d.An LOA is usually not granted during the first semester.
  - e.An LOA must be requested no later than the last day of the semester.
- 2. To request an LOA, the student must send an email intimating their request and providing their reasons for their request to the OAA. The student's request must be supported by an email from a parent or guardian.

3. Not more than four LoAs may be granted to a student during the UG program. In addition, not more than three LOAs may be granted to a student during the first three years of the UG programme.

Academic Integrity Policy

Writing that borrows from another person's work without appropriate acknowledgment challenges the academic integrity of a university community. Clear attribution to and acknowledgement of authorship and sources is a practice that Ashoka University seeks to inculcate in its students. Completing a workshop on academic integrity mandatory for students in their first semester. Violating Academic Integrity is a serious offence, must be reported, may become a part of a student's permanent file, may show on their transcript, and is generally met with severe disciplinary action. A student might also be required to complete a refresher workshop on academic integrity. Note that a student cannot graduate if such a mandatory workshop is pending in their records. Details regarding Ashoka's handling of academic misconduct can be found in the Academic Integrity Policy, which is available in the documents section associated with the Office of Academic Affairs on the mv.ashoka.edu.in portal.

Graduation Policy

This policy briefly outlines the general requirements for students to graduate from Ashoka University, including requirements to be met to graduate on time, and then provides more specific regulations governing students who graduate late because they have either pending work to complete or because they have to meet other graduation requirements, such as the defence or submission of a thesis or a research project or the completion of a mandatory training in academic integrity.

General Graduation Requirements

- 1. Students cannot graduate before the minimum period of enrolment as decided by the UGC.
- 2. Students must graduate in the semester in which they complete all their graduation requirements and they must be enrolled in that semester to graduate in it.
- 3. The total time a student is enrolled at the University in a given programme must not exceed the maximum duration allowed for the completion of the graduation requirements associated with that programme as per UGC Guidelines.
- 4. Graduation requirements include, first and foremost, the completion of pending course work as per the programme requirements; but they may also include:
  - a. the completion of work on a thesis or research project as per the programme requirements;
  - b. the defence of a thesis or research project as per the programme requirements;
  - c. the completion of a mandatory workshop concerning academic integrity as per the Academic Integrity Policy; and
  - d. meeting other mandatory requirements as per applicable University regulations.

Late Graduates

The regular duration during which students are expected to complete their undergraduate degree at Ashoka University is four years for a 4-year degree programme, and four years for a four-year degree programme with research. That said, in accordance with UGC regulations, a student must graduate within 6 years (i.e. duration of the programme + 2 years) for a 4-year degree programme. Only in exceptional cases, the Vice-Chancellor may approve an extension to an additional year.

Undergraduate students who require more than four years to finish their degree must accumulate sufficient credits to complete their degree within an extended period of (duration of program) plus two years. Failure to fulfill this criterion will result in revocation of their student status and their requirement to leave the university.

Grade Appeal Policy

A student can appeal the final grade of a course under certain circumstances. They may only appeal the final grade for a course. The instructor's academic judgement about the quality of a student's work is not negotiable.

The appeal must be based on problems of process that vitiate the expected standards of professional judgement. Calculation error is a valid ground for appeal. An appeal may also be made if the student can show that the grade grossly violates the instructor's grading policy or was awarded in a manner that is arbitrary and discriminatory.

Grade appeals submitted for any other reasons will be summarily declined, for example:

- 1. Because the student judges that their grade does not reflect how hard they worked.
- 2. Because the course instructor denied them an academic accommodation that impacted their grade (barring academic accommodations approved by the Office of Learning Support).
- 3. Because their CGPA falls below a threshold necessary for admission to another Programme.

Grade Appeal Policy

To lodge a grade appeal, use the Grade Appeal Portal and a student must provide all the necessary information. They must provide a complete explanation of the error in their grade: for example, they can document the grading rubric of their course by submitting a copy of the exam/syllabus or evidence for the grading rubric communicated to students elsewhere; or give a detailed and specific explanation of the error in their grade.

They must submit their grade appeal through the Grade Appeal Portal within the prescribed deadline. A committee consisting of the Head of the Department, the Controller of Examinations and the Dean of Academic Affairs will evaluate all appeals. Please note that the Committee's determination is final and binding on the student, and that their grade may remain the same or be higher or lower.

The OAA will not update the grades of those students who have made grade appeals unless the process is complete. Changes made by the instructors before this process is complete will not be accepted.

Grade Revision in Exceptional Circumstances

Revision of a grade should normally follow a grade appeal. However, in exceptional circumstances instructors have the discretion of changing a grade retroactively, on the condition that it is done no later than the end of the semester following the one in which the course was taken.

Office of Academic Affairs

The Office of Academic Affairs (OAA) will facilitate and assist with a whole range of academic functions, including:

- course planning
- pre-registration and registration for classes
- class schedules and grade functions
- scheduling academic classes
- the assignment of Mentors and Advisors

- processing student requests relating to: Leave of Absence (LoA); early exit; updation of students' particulars, such as changes in their Major, Minor, or Concentration credentials; Incompletes, Independent Study Modules and Audits.
- · degree check and graduation.

The OAA plays a pivotal role in advising students and in assisting them as they navigate their academic pathway towards completing their undergraduate degrees. For queries, students are welcome to walk in to the OAA office during office hours, fix an appointment or raise a ticket through the AMS portal.

For all academic matters including course registrations, course advice, class attendance, academic disciplinary issues, and academic societies please reach out to the OAA team on their email IDs:

STUDENT AFFAIRS

Student Life | Residence Life | Sports & Exercise | Pastoral Care

The Office of Student Affairs drives student experience outside the classroom. It is aimed towards making the university life of students enriching and well-rounded. Student Affairs cultivates and promotes student learning and development, with a strong commitment towards diversity, inclusion and mutual respect; physical and mental wellbeing; cultural enrichment and creating opportunities for student empowerment.

Vision

Student Affairs at Ashoka University envisions new learners, leaders, active global citizens and pioneers of change in its students. We aspire to create a new generation of student learners and leaders who are exposed to critical thinking, become effective communicators, pursue innovations, inculcate a spirit of community service and strive for excellence.

Mission

With a web of extracurricular programmes, Student Affairs works to strike a fine balance between keeping the students engaged in activities that are both fun and intellectually challenging. The Office practices an "open door" policy for students and actively addresses any issues, concerns, questions, and ideas from the student body. In its endeavour to promote responsible citizenship, the Office underscores and inculcates the values of responsible, ethical and civil exercise of rights and privileges. The Office strongly believes in the potential of the student body and in the diversity of thoughts and opinions from students, which are critical to building an institution of liberal education.

The Pillars of Student Affairs

The Pillars of Student Affairs at Ashoka University comprises Student Life Office. Residence Life Office, Sports & Exercise Office and Pastoral Care. Through these very significant and strong components that make up Student Affairs, the Office works towards creating a robust learning and living environment outside the classroom. Each of branches these occupies and crafts intellectually stimulating spaces in their own right. Be it the creative and extracurricular domain of Student Life; the active and invigorating space of the Sports fields; or the ingeniously curated Halls of Residence - each one provides scope and potential harnessing their skills and talents in a wide sphere of learning.

Welcome to this world, where the classroom goes far beyond the walls of physical space; where learning takes place under the bright blue Sonepat skies; where learning takes place within the spaces we reside in; where learning takes place on the sports fields; where learning takes place at music and dance studios and in the art room; where learning takes place amidst the greens and soil at the kitchen garden right next to the Residence Halls! Where learning has no boundaries but only waits for us to create our own and more!

Marquee Events

Student Excellence Awards

The Student Excellence Awards are guided by the spirit of recognising hard work of all our students in extracurricular spaces. We believe that excellence is achieved by inclusion and not exclusion by way of ranking. The awards are rooted in the philosophy of recognizing merit in every person, who by way of stepping out of their comfort space and pushing boundaries, have been able to contribute towards an enriching and inspiring campus experience for all. The broad spectrum of categories and subcategories for the awards (outlined in the policy) is intended to create a plateau instead of a peak of achievements.

The Series - Trailing Passions and Life Journeys

'Living the dream' is a common phrase we all wish we could apply to our lives. All of us strive to achieve our dreams, but until we get there we continue to wonder what it is like to do what we love and succeed at it. Hearing stories from such individuals is often motivation enough to keep on the path to our dreams. The Series is an endeavour where one will bear witness to the stories and experiences of individuals who had the good fortune of excelling at their passions. Having lived their dreams, the stories may just nudge you toward the path to yours.

STUDENT LIFE

The Student Life Office drives the extra-curricular engagements, and student development programmes of the University which range from creative and performative arts, leadership and training opportunities, experiential learning, volunteering opportunities, driving student-led programmes and more. By championing, guiding and encouraging student organisations, clubs and societies, initiatives and events, the Office promotes maximum student participation and involvement in campus life. Through its various programmes and activities, the Office strives to provide students with the best of opportunities.

The various programmes and initiatives of the Office aim to help students appreciate the intricate connection between human life and its socio-cultural fabric, thus enriching student relationships between each other and the world around them.

Student Life Activities Board (SLAB)

The Student Life Activities Board is a unit of the Student Life Office, consisting of SLAB Coordinator (Representative from the Student Life Office), SLAB Mentors and SLAB Volunteers (Students) who are responsible for shaping the students' cultural experience at Ashoka University. The board aims to create opportunities for students to become leaders/mentors for students and student groups to organise successful cultural events, brainstorm various other extra curricular initiatives and help each student to navigate non-academic life at Ashoka University.

This year's SLAB team:

- · Vaishnavi Saumya
- · Nylaa Ahmed

Get Involved, Hone Your Passion and Create

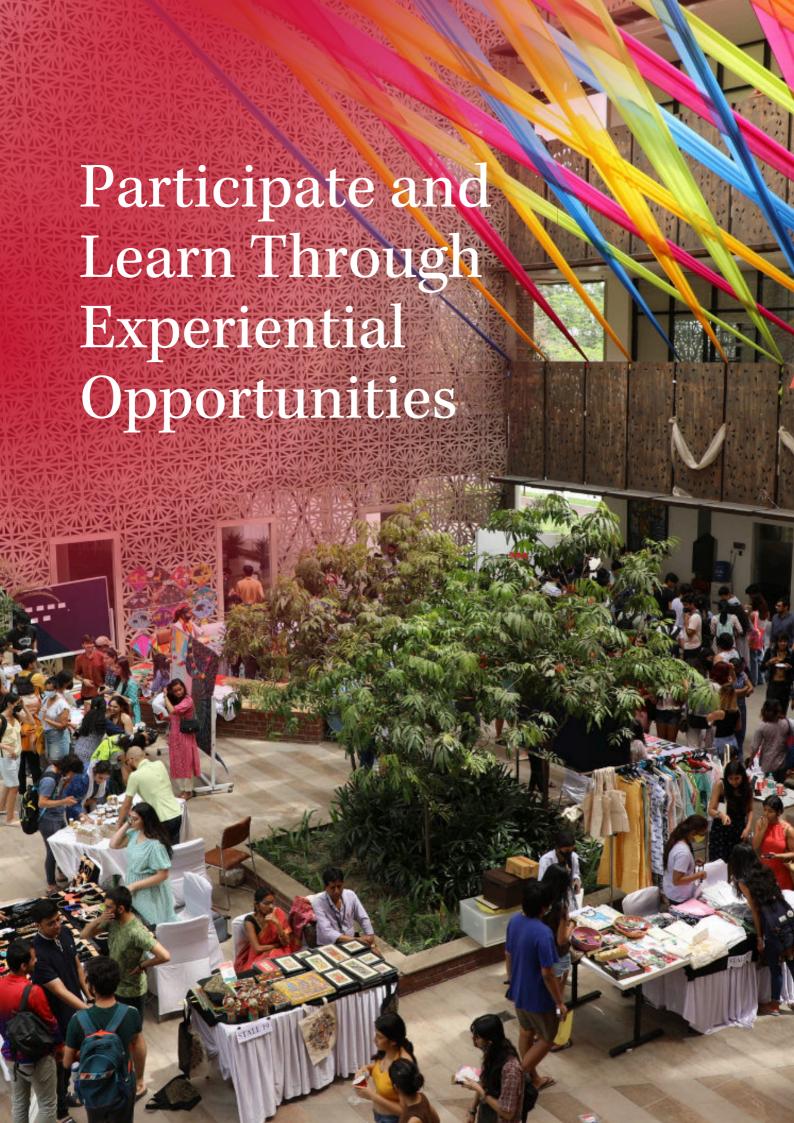

At Ashoka University, when not occupied with academics, students will find themselves immersed in pursuing their hobbies and interests through clubs and societies! These give students an ocean of opportunities to contribute and enrich their campus experience culturally and intellectually. Ranging from music, dance and gaming to community engagement, language, creative writing, photography, culinary and much more, students may choose from amongst the array of 35 existing clubs and societies functioning on campus, and also initiate their own! Students may refer to the clubs and societies directory at the end of this Handbook.

A 'Club' is a focused group working towards a specific field of interest. A 'Society' is an umbrella organisation which has under it two or more clubs. These clubs have diverse interests and pursuits with a common objective and focal interest area that affiliates them to a single domain and binds them together. Club formation entails a proposal submission based on the guidelines released by the Office and subsequent grant of approval by the Office. An initiative that is completely student-led and driven, the inception of a club is an outcome of intense deliberations by students, through a process that demands rigour and precision akin to research. Each approved club/society should be able to "lead out" and "reach out" in order to contribute meaningfully toward creating a diverse and vibrant campus culture.

The Clubs get ample opportunity to showcase their talents through annual traditions created by the Office such as Jashn-e-Jazba (a platform for clubs to provide a sneak-peak into what they do); Annual Production Fortnight (a year end mega-event) where clubs bring to the fore their creative work that the year's hard work and passion have culminated with; Clubs and Societies Fair, interuniversity events and other regular activities. They are, therefore, expected to be very proactive on community programming so as to sustain their "active" status. All approved clubs/societies are evaluated through an appraisal process carried out by the Student Life Office. Every approved club/society is also allotted a seed budget, which may be earned through a system of grants. The Student Life Office wants our clubs and societies to be able to hone their passions and also excel in them. We are committed to providing full support and encouragement to them through mentorship, training, infrastructure and financial support.

Safarnama

'Safarnama' is an initiative that aims to provide an opportunity to Ashokans to explore Delhi, Haryana as well as other cities: their art, music, theatre, cuisines, monuments and much more! All of us have our own unique experiences of each city and it means different things to different people. Safarnama seeks to give every explorer their own special reasons to explore these cities.

As a city with diverse pasts, Delhi has not only seen the rise and fall of great empires but has also been at the heart of the nation-building process in independent India. This city with its distinct historical past and rich cultural heritage is an interesting amalgamation of modernity and tradition, past and present, old and new, local and global. Safarnama aims to capture this unique juxtaposition of Delhi, through the various tours that will be conducted under its ambit. Each tour aims to explore Delhi through a distinct lens; its historical monuments, its rich heritage, its flora and fauna, its mouth-watering cuisines, its bustling markets and the way in which Delhi is lived by its inhabitants, every single day.

Some of the tours that have been conducted so far from campus include: 'Trees of Delhi' by environmentalist Pradip Krishen, Food Walk in Chandni Chowk with Sohail Hashmi, 'Birds of Delhi' in Okhla Bird Sanctuary & Sultanpur National Park, Museums of Delhi, Exploring 'Mini-Bengal' of Delhi, 'Quila-e-Kuhna' mosque at Purana Quila, 'Surajkund Mela', 'Dilli Haat', a walk at Mehrauli Archaeological Park and a 'Walk with Djinns of Delhi' in the ruins of Ferozeshah Kotla Fort. Special outstation trips to Mahmudabad Fort to experience decadent cuisines and ceremonies have also been organised.

Baithaks

This programme has been conceptualised and envisioned to create a non-stage forum, centered on performing arts and conversations that intend to engage, listen and speak with the audience. With this format, Baithak aims to bridge the insurmountable divide between the audience and the performer. The Baithaks range from beginning a dialogue on relevant issues around us, to simply soaking in the creative churning of an art form such as poetry, dance, theater, storytelling etc. The programme was launched in the year 2018 and has organised multiple Baithaks since then including but not limited to Kathak Mehfil by Ishwari Despande, 'Love Expressed....' by Dilip Shankar and Mandakini Goswami, 'Sattriya Bela' by the Majuli Monks of Assam, 'Ek Baar Ki Baat Hai' by 'Jashn - e - Qalam', Vilasini Natyam by Purvadhanashree and Leather puppetry by B. Muthuchandran. Volunteer, Work and Give Back The Student Life Office has a few other channels too for student contribution and participation. The Office recruits volunteers throughout the year for the entire gamut of the programmes that it does. It is for students to choose their area of interest and they will be on board for this creative journey! Paid internship opportunities are floated to students, who wish to work on certain projects of the Office. These are opportunities for students to create traditions and concepts based on novel ideas that they might bring to the table. The Office has also recruited student entrepreneurs and programmers, to create certain tools towards technical sophistication in functioning. ## Haats

Ashoka University, located in Sonepat Haryana organises a cultural expansion event in the form of a 'Haat', to acquaint our multicultural students hailing from diverse backgrounds, with experiences and realities of local Haryanvi cultural heritage. Educative, informative and interactive; these 'Haats' aim to indulge students and staff in a cultural and social evolvement blending them with the Haryanvi heritage by showcasing artisans, food stalls, craftsmanship etc. From the durry workers of Panipat to artisans of the Khadi Ashram, the famous Pyaarelal Pedawala to the signature jalebis of Maturam Halwai, from our potters of Asawarpur to beautiful bangles from the chudiwali, it is a platform for students to witness, the indigenous spirit of Haryana. The 'Haat' encourages hands-on interaction between the local artisans and the students, to build a mutual relationship and appreciate the Haryanvi heritage and also participate in making the artefacts by themselves.

At Ashoka University, "Education" is not confined to degrees and grades! Learning – that is marked by quality and depth of knowledge – is part of the accomplishment, which adds excellence to the education here. Awareness of and engagement with different kinds of art and cultural activities gives one a complete picture of the world around, and more importantly, a complete understanding of one's own self. Some of the stalwarts of their fields and disciplines whom the community have witnessed on Campus so far, include - Pandit Vishwa Mohan Bhatt, environmentalist Pradip Krishen's "Wild Tours" with students, exploration of issues around gender through movement art with danseuse Mirra Arun, Dhrupad by maestro Padma Shri Ustad Wasifuddin Dagar, Thumris by Padma Shri Shubha Mudgal, Kathak recital by Padma Shri Shovana Narayan, pottery workshop by an indigenous artisan from the neighbouring village, music concert by Rabbi Shergil, Solo Theatre performance by Anant Dayal, "Partition Project" by Sonam Kalra, Sufi music by the Niyazi Brothers, "Women on Record" by Vidya Shah, folk traditions by the Manganiyars from Rajasthan, Bhapang by Jumma Yogi Khan, Pandvani by Padma Vibhushan Teejan Bai, Raagini: Haryanvi Kissagoi, Dastan-e-Goi, dance maestros Leela Samson and Justin McCarthy (also a faculty member) – and many more! Expect to be exposed to a myriad of cultural forms ranging from folk to classical to fusion. Not only this, but the Office also programs various creative workshops such as recycling, survival cooking, photography, pottery, gardening etc.

Through such a vibrant and syncretic programme palette, the Office aspires to bring a synergy of cultures, traditions, experiences and opportunities to the student's doorstep; thus, making these precious years of their University life memorable with moments of awakening new sensibilities and taste.

As students at Ashoka University, individuals will be encouraged to initiate their own projects and/or participate in the wide range of extra-curricular activities buzzing on campus. Be it running a club, working as an elected member of the Student Government, taking along a diverse team, in short, simply being a dynamic student in all spheres of their "student life" at Ashoka University – the Office will help them to effectively carry out the various responsibilities and projects that they undertake. With a variety of sessions conducted throughout the year, here is a glimpse into what these largely entail.

Workshops, Lecture-Demonstrations and Guest Sessions

A basket of multifarious workshops, demonstrative sessions, and talks by experts – these sessions are meant to stimulate creative interests and unravel the artist in each student. These sessions cater to a gamut of disciplines and art forms – some often used as media to discover and appreciate issues of socio-political relevance, thus, harnessing not only the artist in them but helping them develop into conscientious, aware and mindful citizens.

Club and Society Mentorship Programme Training and support that is ongoing through the year, the leadership and members of approved clubs and societies interact and meet with the mentors from the Office on a regular basis. The meetings are used to pilot planning of club/society activities, brainstorming and troubleshooting, thus creating an active and vibrant culture on Campus.

Office Hours

Members of the Student Life Office are available to meet and interact with our students. Be it a conversation or thought students wish to share, an initiative students wish to propose, a problem students wish to seek assistance for or anything else that students wish to have a patient hearing for... the office members are all ears! The Office has a systematic procedure for booking appointments with anyone that students wish to meet. The Office looks forward to having students visit them over the course of their academic years at Ashoka University.

Town halls

The Student Life Office convenes town halls every quarter of the academic year for regular and effective communication with all clubs and societies. These town halls are open to all bonafide students of Ashoka University.

Creative Spaces

The Student Life Office also brings to students a host of physical spaces for a variety of creative pursuits. While a fully equipped and functional Music Studio will help students record and produce their own music, the Art Room will allow students to chase their artistic pursuits. The Music Room hones a host of musicians, vocal and instrumental alike. The Student Commons is a space that has been thoughtfully curated for the purpose of study, discussion, public speaking, student meetings and debates. It is an expanse that has been creatively thought out in terms of placement, design and interiors, to allow for the various intellectually and creatively stimulating activities that students can pursue in their learning, outside the classroom.

Ashoka Centre for Translation

The Ashoka Centre for Translation (ACT) is established with a view to foster, nurture, and foreground India's multilingual ethos. It hopes to unlock knowledge and aid its dissemination through translation. Given the urgency to make knowledge available and democratic, the Centre does not confine itself only to English. In fact, it aims to translate material from many Indian languages into many other Indian languages, including English. Thus, received binaries of (one) source and (one) target do not characterise the aims of the Centre. A range of texts from literary and popular, political and scientific, and oral and written domains—all of these are important to the Centre's vision. Through workshops and lectures at the Centre, Professors Rita Kothari and Arunava Sinha also invite, mentor, and train aspiring translators, thereby expanding the community of practitioners and students of translation at Ashoka and beyond. Centre's activities are accompanied by theoretical reflections emerging from the act of translating in a multilingual society. Since its establishment in December 2021, the Centre has launched ongoing projects like 'Translating Bhakti', 'Women Translating Women', and 'Chronicles' and collaborated with national and international initiatives and organisations focused on translation.
