

Talk on liberal arts at PU

CHANDIGARH: Panjab University (PU) on Monday commemorated Teacher's Day 2026 with a public lecture on "Liberal arts education and the Ashoka experiment," organised by the PU Institute of Social Science Education and Research (ISSER) in association with the Society for Promotion of Science & Technology in India (SPSTI), PI-RAHI, Northern science & technology cluster and the Chandigarh chapters of INSA, NASI and INYAS. The lecture was delivered by Ashoka

University's dean of student affairs, office of academic affairs, Dheeraj Sanghi, who discussed the evolution of liberal arts education in India, focusing on the institutional model developed by Ashoka University.